THINGS TO DO THIS FESTIVE SEASON

1. Skate Park

The central city's award-winning skate park is under a bridge in Mill Street, next door to the Gardens MyCiTi station.

Transfer to route: 101 or 103 Get off at: Gardens station

2. Labia Theatre

The independent movie theatre is situated in Orange Street. It was opened in 1949 and originally only hosted performing arts but in later years the Labia added screens and became a cinema. One of the best things about it is that you can enjoy a meal while watching your movie.

Transfer to route: 101

Get off at: Government Avenue

3. Planetarium

Following a recent upgrade, the Planetarium with its multi-sensory digital dome offers a world-class experience of the night skies and a whole lot more.

Transfer to route: 101 Get off at: Michaelis or Upper Long

4. Iziko South African Museum

For over 200 years, scientists at the South African Museum have been adding to the collection of almost two million items. For a very affordable price, go check out specimens ranging from over 700 million years old to a few days old.

Transfer to route: 101 Get off at: Michaelis

5. The Company's Garden

Stroll under the Arch for Arch into this historic green oasis in the city centre, feed the squirrels, browse the festive season market and enjoy a picnic on the lawns or lunch at the restaurant.

Transfer to route: 107 Get off at: Groote Kerk

6. District Six Museum

The densely populated District Six suburb near the city centre was the site of forced removals during the time of the infamous apartheid-era Group Areas Act. The museum tells the story and houses memorabilia and artefacts from former residents.

Transfer to route: 103 Get off at: Lower Buitenkant

7. The Castle of Good Hope

South Africa's oldest colonial building, built in 1659 as a fort, was previously on the edge of the city's shoreline. Today the Castle houses a military museum, William Fehr's collection of paintings and is home to the Cape Town Highlanders Regiment.

Transfer to route: 102 or 261 Get off at: The Castle or Castle

8. The Slave Lodge and Church Square

Cape Town in the 1700s was home to many slaves. The Iziko Slave Lodge, which used to house slaves, has an exhibition called "human wrongs to human rights". On historic Church Square nearby there's a memorial to slavery and a plaque marking the tree under which slaves were auctioned.

Transfer to route: 107 Get off at: Groote Kerk

9. St George's Cathedral

Visit the Anglican Cathedral, and don't miss the Crypt with its exhibition recalling the peace marches that preceded the release of former President Nelson Mandela. There's a piece of the historic Berlin Wall across the way in St George's Mall.

Transfer to route: 107 Get off at: Groote Kerk

10. Greenmarket Square

This outdoor market is a treasure trove of clothings and curios, surrounded by street cafés and restaurants. Also visit the Pan African Market on Long Street for décor items and souvenirs with an authentic African flavour, including wooden figurines, beaded items and colourful artworks. Check out the nearby Church Street art galleries and stalls.

Transfer to route: 101 Get off at: Longmarket

11. Long Street

If the night life is what you're after, Long Street offers a variety of restaurants ranging from Kurdish, Chinese, Mozambican and Indian, clubs and bars to choose from. There are some great eating places in nearby Loop and Bree streets too

Transfer to route: 101 Get off at: Lower Long or Upper Long

12. The Bo-Kaap

Explore this historic district, with its colourful homes, cobbled streets, spice shops and mosques

Transfer to route: 101 Get off at: Church

13. Festive Lights

Adderley Street's festive season lights draw crowds in the evenings. The official switch-on and music festival is on 3 December, and the lights stay on until the new year Transfer to route: 107

Get off at: Adderley station or Groote Kerk

14. Artscape Theatre Centre

The main performing arts centre in Cape Town, Artscape is the home of ballet, opera and plays of every genre. Visit the website for what's on.

Transfer to route: 101

21. Bay Harbour Market

This popular market in the Hout Bay harbour has food, gifts and music, plus it's near the beach.

Transfer to route: 108 Get off at: Atlantic Skipper

22. Lion's Head

At 750m above sea level, Lion's Head and Signal Hill are ideal for a day-time hike or, if you're a bit more adventurous, a hop-off spot for paragliding, hang-gliding or microlighting. The walk up the head itself requires a moderate level of fitness, and the unpredictable weather means you always need a light jacket and water. Experience breathtaking views of Table Mountain, the city and the Atlantic coastline.

Transfer to route: 107

Get off at: Kloof Nek

23. Table Mountain Aerial Cableway

This popular attraction takes you in a cable car to the summit of Table Mountain. You can also walk or cycle along Tafelberg Road, or take a hike up Skeleton Gorge, to take advantage of vistas of the city and sea.

Transfer to route: 110

Get off at: Upper Tafelberg

24. Deer Park

Situated in Vredehoek on the slopes of the mountain, the nature reserve provides a perfect getaway from the hustle and bustle of the city. Go for a relaxing stroll, picnic or cycle. There's a children's play park, great views and coffee shops.

25. The Woodstock Foundry

This is where you will find a working industrial art foundry, licensed restaurant, coffee roaster and café, a botanical florist, high-end designer furniture, arty décor for home and office, designer jewellery for every occasion and fabrics - even a natural history store. The Foundry also hosts Open Studio Nights stations that include artwork.

Transfer to route: 261

Town's 435 km of cycle paths. Cycle up MyCiTi's longest cycle path of about 20 km between the city centre and Table View while enjoying the scenery en route. You can also stop off to have a bite to eat at any of the restaurants along the West Coast. Other routes to enjoy are between Camps Bay and Hout Bay as well as Salt River to the southern suburbs. If a shorter distance is what you're looking for, cycle along the Sea Point Promenade and enjoy the view of the sea. Catch the bus at one of the MyCiTi stations closest to your cycle path if you're not in the mood to cycle back. Your wheels are welcome aboard!
